Is your house filled with art supplies you never got around to using? Have your children lost interest in playing an instrument? Do your shelves groan under the weight of so many art and music books? Are you getting ready to move?

Now is your chance to conquer the clutter! Bring your new and gently used art and music supplies, instruments, art and music books, CDs, and DVDs to The Rye Arts Center's Main Office by Wednesday, September 8. Your donation is tax-deductible.

Items collected during the drive will be sold at Festival @ 51 on Sunday, September 12. Proceeds will benefit The Rye Arts Center's scholarship fund for need based students.
